We have for sale the following valuable documents, and ask Democrats in every County and Township in Indiana to club together and send for them, for distribution:

Voorhees's Speeches. The speeches of Hon. D. W. VOORBERS upon the financial policy and frauds of the Administration party, and his vindication of his statements in that speech to reply for many comforts that they otherwise would to the comments of Mr. Dawss, of Massachusetts. These speeches show, from Republican record, the expenditures of the Administration; the amount of the public judebtedness, and the gross frauds by which that debt has been increased. Published in one pamphlet of sixteen pages, Thursday a band of rebels, a portion of Morgan's and will be furnished at $1 per hundred, and $10 per force, had dashed into the town of Liberty, in Speech of Hichardson, and Address to The speech of Hon W A. RICHARDSON, of Illinois, exposing the abolition schemes of negro equality, and what the tax-payers are paying for the experiment. RICHARDson, the most intimate friend of Senator Douglas. Price has been appointed Quartermaster of the 70th ten cents per dozen, fifty cents per hundred, and four regiment. dollars per thousand.

ARTEMUS WARD'S BOOK .- This book, by the renowned showman, is meeting with large sales. Bowen, Stewart & Co. have received another large supply.

War speeches were made in Franklin on Thursday afternoon by Mr. R. J. Ryan, Major Oyler, Mr. McNutt, of Morgan county, Captain Allison and others.

The 13th and 14th Indiana regiments are now with the army before Richmond, and after all their trials and tribulations under General Shields, are in fine condition and spirits.

The regiment now in Camp Morton belongs to the Legion and will be kept in the State, probably at the duty they are now engaged in, that of guarding prisoners. We are informed that the Rev. Horace Stringfellow, jr., has resigned the rectorship of Christ Church, and that his resignation has been been accepted by the vestry. Do you wish a reliable place to purchase your boots and shoes? then go to the City Shoe Store. Everybody knows where it is. Their goods come direct from the manufacturers, and you pay one profit only. They have a few of those wooden soled shoes left.

If you ever go to Indianapolis, and want anything in the dry goods line, step into Glenns' and we will warrant that you will get the full value of your money. We know whereof we speak from experience .- Rushville Jacksonian. The National Saloon, No 27 South Meridian street, will served up at 9 o'clock this evening, a splendid free lunch of crawfish soup and all the delicacies of the season. All lovers of good things are invited to be present. For a neat fitting gaiter, slipper, tie, or buskin, go to Cady & Co. For a prime French calf boot, go to Cady & Co. For a prime High land or Oxford tie, go to Cady & Co. In fact, Cady & Co.'s, in the Glenn's Block, is the place to bus your boots and shoes. The joint convention of Johnson and Morlong to it, and who are required to return, by going either to Nashville or Huntsville, can easily find the regiment from either of these points. CAVALRY FOR THE BORDER .- Gov. Morton vesterday telegraphed the Secretary of War for authority to raise a cavalry regiment in this State for operating on the borders, in view of the unsettled condition of Kentucky. The request should be granted. Cavalry only can operate to advantage against these marauding bands, and

Indiana has not got her proportion of that class of troops. Illinois has ten or twelve cavalry regiments-Indiana only two. RETURNED .- We are pleased to see W. R. Holloway, Esq , the accomplished Secretary of the Governor, in his accustomed seat in the Execu tive office, at the Capitol, after a long visit to the Indiana regiments in the East. Holloway is deservedly popular with those who do business at this office, and with the soldiers from Indiana, in whose service he has labored INDIANAPOLIS, July 18, 1862. EDITOR SENTINEL: In the published proceed ings of the Democratic Congressional Convention held on yesterday at Franklin, my name appears as one of the district committee from this county, a compliment I most respectfully decline. When I was informed vesterday at Franklin that the President of the Convention had appointed me on the committee, I went to the Court House type, and will be furnished at $2 per 100 copies. Let the to decline the position, but found it impossible to get an opportunity to do so, therefore I take this method of declining. My only motive for doing so is that I prefer acting in the capacity of "high private" in the ranks.

Thanking the President, Mr. Dodd, for the compliment intended. I remain, respectfully,

JAS. B. RYAN. We know of no city in the country where wealth is more equally divided and where so much of the real estate is in the hands of actual residents as Indianapolis, and to this cause is attributed the rapid growth and prosperity of the city. The system of selling building lots upon payments of a small amount each month, thus bringing property within the affordings of men of small means, is one of the good features of our city, and we hope those of our readers who have seen the folly of spending all their gains in pay ing exhorbitant rents, will attend Wiley's sale of lots on next Monday and secure themselves a home. It is not too late to make a beginning has paid rent for any length of time, and he will tell you no, and if he had he might have been a

The Indiana American of yesterday, says: "While our citizens, the city and county, are contributing largely and liberally in money for the benefit of the families of those who now volunteer in answer to the President's call, what is being done for the families of our three years volunteers? They seem to be left entirely outforgotten in our eagerness to fill up our quota. There should be a little more consideration exercised. The families of our three years volun teers are as deserving as the families of those who now volunteer. Our citizens, our city and county, are entitled to the highest praise for the liberality shown, but it does not reach far enough back. The families of our three years volunteers are entitled to a share of the contributions now being made, and we hope they will be remembered. We must not forget the wives and children of those who are now in the field and fighting our battles ' Won't our people think of this just a little during the hurry and excitement.

A WOMAN DEFENDS HER HUSBAND .- On Thurs day as a party of soldiers were about leaving for the seat of war, some eight or ten of them feeling funny, congregated about a little old man who keeps a fruit stand near the Union Depot. The fruit vender although small and puny is married to a six footer well filled out-a heavy, healthy woman. She was not present when the fun commenced. From jokes at first harmless, rough words were used and at length one of the soldiers who had been drinking, struck the little man. Just at the moment the blow was struck the fruit seller's wite came up and hurling the crowd aside made directly at the soldier who struck the blow. The weight of her arm came down with stunning effect and the man staggered against the wall where other blows were rained thick and fast upon his head by the heroine. The man's comrades, who disapproved of his assault, looked on and cheered the wife in her gallant charges, offering to hold her bonnet and to assist her in numerous ways. The soldier was well wnipped and afterwards heartily laughed at by his comrades. The licking sobered

One was a dark bay, three years old and twelve hands high, the other four years old and fourteen hands high. LYNCHING AT GREENWOOD -We understand that a man by the name of Phillips, a huckster from this city, was seriously whipped by a party of ten or fifteen men near Greenwood on Tuesday last. Phillips had stopped over night at a farm house, and having to pass in the morning through a room where a young girl was sleeping, he shook her as he passed. The girl started up, and in her fright jumped out of a window, and was seized by a dog on the outside and her clothes torn by him. Phillips protested that he had no evil intent in speaking to the girl or in laying his hand on her. The news reaching Greenwood in an exaggerated form, a mob started in pursuit of the huckster. When overtaken he wished to explain, prayed for a trial, but to no purpose. He was whipped by each of the men in turn until his flesh was cut in a shocking manner. Over two hundred lashes were given and then each of the party kicked him. He was left with his team to make his way home as best he could. The affair has caused considerable excitement in that neigh-

The combined militia of this city and neighboring towns, numbering 1,200, marched in procession. The hall was crowded at an early hour. The immense mass of people caused the breaking down of a portion of the approach to the hall, and some hundreds of people were prebut fortunately there was no loss of life. STATUTES OF INDIANA. GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION.

The second volume of Mesars. Gavin & Hord's compiletion or Indiana Statutes has just appeared. This values completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver creditable; and the skill, learning, and labor which the editors have bestowed on it, merit the highest praise.

None but learned, diligent lawyers could have produced such a work. The second volume embraces all the public statutes of Indiana now in force upon the subjects to which it relates, and the first all excepting the acts of the last regular and extra sessions of the Legislature. It is a great excellence of the compilation that all existing tatutes on each subject are collected together in the same place in these volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the legislation in force on any given subject. Take, for example, the act of 1852, organizing Courts of Common Pleas-the editors publish the act at large, and they also print, in the form of notes on the same pages containing this statute, all the acts amendatory to it which have been passed up to this time. And so they have done of all the other acts contained in the revision of 1852. The editors have added much to the value of these volumes-especially the last-by the copious and learned notes with which the volumes abound. These notes indicate much labor and legal acumen. They furnish us, in a concise and accurate form, with all the adjudientions of our Supreme Court on these statutes. These adjudications being now very numerous, the references to them in the volumes under consideration, will be of great value to the lawyer, and indeed to all persons concerned in the administration of justice. The editors have also referred, in their notes, to numerous decisions in other States, made on statutes similar to ours.

An excellence of these volumes, not to be overlooked is the full and accurate index appended to each. In Indians, there never has been a good index to any volumes of statutes published by authority. This provoking defect has been completely remedied in the volumes under review; and these indexes will greatly lighten the labor of all who have occasion to look into our statutes. This is the first time that private enterprize has attempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The at-

ers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the State, will find it to his advantage to own them. DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The foregoing notice by Judge McDonald, of Gavin & Hone's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not designed as a puff of the work, but is an unsolicited com-tempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprizing publishmendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared. The second volume, which has just been issued from the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a private enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for remuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600 pages of matter, nearly double the quantity embraced in

The price of the work is $4 50 per volume, or $9 00 for the two volumes. Orders addressed to the subscriber wil J. J. BINGHAM. June 7th, 1862. Indianapolis, Ind.

SINKING FUND NOTICE.

THE Act of March 9th, 1861, gives to Borrowers of the Sinking Fund the privilege of paying their Loans by annual installments of one-fifth of the principal, commencing in 1863, on the day when interest falls due upon the respective Mortgages, with the proviso, however, "That interest be annually paid in advance, and at the appropriate time." The officers of the Fund are disposed to give all indulgence to Borrowers, compatible with their duties as enjoined by law; but they cannot disregard the positive provisions of the statute. Debtors to the Sinking Fund will therefore appreciate the importance of paying the interest on their Loans as soon as it is due.
